Say About Yesterday's Trading.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.).

NEW YORK, May 5.—The Evening Post says: Two developments of more than pertunctory interest to-day were the government's weekly crop bullotin and the action of London's market. There was a good deal of intural interest in the crop raport, because it covers the period of violent drop in temperature throughout the grain fields, and because of private advices as to the damage done have been conflicting.

London's returning financial animation may, as the cables have assured us, becaused by expectation that the $150,000,000 Transvasal loan, to be offered two days hence, will bear so inviting terms that subscriptions will be large. It has been a little hard for New Yorkers to understand why the mere selection of a 3 per cent, rate, as against, say 24, should be cause for jubilation. Ordinarilly, it would be supposed that 29, per cents, sold at 91 or 22 would be as attractive in all respects as 8 per cents, as 1 per, and would, indeed, offer larger inducements to subscribers, because of the increment in principal at redemption.

To-day's New York market does not reucribers, because of the increment in principal at redemption.

To-day's New York market does not require much comment. It opened firm, and continued yesterday's leisurely advance until late in the afternoon, when part of the advance was lost. The day's most noteworthy gains were not in the more important shares, but in minor stocks, which commonly move when the rest of the list stands still.

Gross rallway carnings for last week and for the month of April were again very interesting. Sterling exchange went higher, but so it did in Paris, leaving calculations on the "triangular operation" much where they were before.

much where they were before.

The Evening Sun says: Intelligent and experienced observers of stock market conditions reported to-day that the dealings chibited all the indications of a sound and healthful market. Business was not, indeed, in large volume, but it was well distributed, and a number of securities which for a long time have not been dealt in at all appeared upon the record of the tape, an indication of a more general revival of outside interest. The time of the market in the main was very into the control of the market in the main was very into the control of the market in the main was very lation resulted in occasional periods of duliness and reaction, when profit-taking sales of large volume were being conducted. The market also showed more decided evidences of active manipulation than have been present for a considerable time, but no further significance could be attached to that manifestation than that the persons conducting it considered that the times warranted their undertaking.

The Commercial-Advertiser says; Prices rose again with a decided increase of transactions, halted soon after mid-day and then fell back slowly under pressure of realizing sales. The leading question in the minds of the active traders was whether the upward movement of the previous days was merely one of turns in the marrow professional market or whether it meant the beginnings of a more substantial rise. Opinion was by no means annalmous on this subject at the end of the acstsion, but the "in and out" traders who sold out their stocks and went short on the idea that a reaction was due, found that their offerings were readily absorbed. Speculative activity was no longer concentrated upon specialities as it had

Delaware and Hudson made a further advance on the important changes in the management and the expectation that they indicated some special distribution to stockholders involving a rearrangement of the capital.

PENNEYLVANIA!
There was some covering of shorts in Penneylvania, and the houses were again buyers.

ANTHRACITE ISSUES:

The anthracite issues were generally firm in sympathy with the advance in Delaware and Hudson, and there was some special strength in the Eric issues. This was presumably based upon the understanding that a more liberal dividend policy would be pursued in the future,

TOOK REALIZING WPILE:
The market was tested in the first hour by a very fair volume of profit-taking, in which the Waldorf-Astoria crowd and a section of the Western speculative element were conspicuous. The market took it remarkably well, and was materially helped by the fact that London was buying stocks.

WABASH UNCERTAIN:

Borne uncertainty was shown in the Wabash issues in view of President Ramsey's announcement that improvements had been suspended on account of the high price of labor and materials. The street did not quite know how to take it, as it was thought that the Pitsburg extension at least was urgent.

ing did not seriously check the market, which showed fair strength up to noon and into the early afternoon. There was an attempt to make capital out of the strength of foreign exchange, but as everybody seemed prepared for gold exports the silect was small. Traders, however, were inclined to hold off for the government weekly crop report.

STANDARD OIL BUYING ST. PAUL:

The market was dull and hard in the carly afternoon, but upon the whole the recent activity seemed to be extending to more stocks, and there was some evidence that the large speculative leaders were taking a position on the long side, after testing the market with profit-taking sales.

READING HAS FAIR FOLLOWING: READING HAS FAIR FOLLOWING:
The buying of Reading by Harris, Gates & Company was taken to indicate that there was a fair outside following of Western speculators who would be willing to come into the market with a good lead. The earnings were the basis for the built talk, as reports on a change in the dividend declaration were not oncouraged in the right quarters.

There was some buil talk current on Pressed Steel Car, probably based on the earnings which are very good at present.

WESTERN TRADING:

Bome Western buying of St. Paul was reported in the afternoon, and Chicago was a good buyer of Rock Island.

THE CLOSE:

The close was dull and very hard, and the trading on the day showed that the market was broadening in spite of temporary fits of dullness. The floor traders took profits before the close, but were not anxious about it, and found a good market for anything they wanted to sell.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The cotton market opened stendy at an advance of 4 points to a decline of 1 point, and following the call ruled very strong, and at times excited under covering of shorts and renewed buying by the bull pool, which carried May up to a new high record for the season. The advancing tendency was encouraged in the first instance by the firmenss at Liverpool and further accounts of orop damage. Later it was accelerated by the sensational advance in July at New Orleans, which gained a matter of 17 points in the first half hour or so, and the weekly report of the Weather Bureau, published at mid-day, proved quite as bullish as expected, bringing fresh buying orders. Against these influences the larger receipts for the day, the heavy estimates for leading points to-morrow and the more favorable weather indicated for the near future, proved of little avail. There were brief periods of hesitation and slight recessions under realizing, but the market generally purued an upward course until May reached 10.68 or five points over the bost provious price of the season. July was then at 16.04 with the general list showing a gain as compared with yesterday's finals of 56 did no points. From this there was a slight reaction under prolit-taking, but the market finally was stendy, net 1 points to 9 points higher, with May closing a 10.67 or within one point of the best.

LEAGUE'S PROJECT FALLS THROUGH

Danville Hospital Declines to Become Repository for Liquors-Very Dry.

(Suecisi to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., May 5.—The manager of the Home for the Sick has refused to allow that institution to be the depository for the Anti-Baloon League for whiskey, wines and alcohol for medicinal purposes. It has been suggested that the drug stores be used instead, but the league has abandoned the scheme, as it would cost more than they had any idea. It is understood this afternoon that the druggists will not dispense liquor until the law is amended. There have been one or two cases already reported where it has been very badly needed for medicinal uses, and inability to procure it has been very badly needed for medicinal uses, and inability to procure it has been very badly needed for medicinal uses, and inability to procure it has nearly terminated fatally. The law is enforced here to the letter, and not a single case of violation is reported.
